Marquette Mining Journal: Some weeks ago John Parker of this city, harvested a whitefish which weighed eleven pounds and seven ounces, dressed. He shipped it to a Milwaukeedealer, by whom it was sent to the editor of the New York Market Index and Trade Journal, who exhibited it to the admiring gaze of the patrons of the principal market of that city, after which it was sent to Prof. Baird, Smithsonian Institute. The fish, according to the Index, elicited universal admiration as the finest spectmen of Coregonus Albus ever exhibited in the Empire City, a statement we can well believe, considering that the average weight of whitefish sold in the market is three pounds. The time is coming when New York City will be supplied with fresh fish direct from the clear, cold, pure waters of Lake Superior.

Ferry Sapp, who was working in the harvest field on the farm of William Kitson, in the township of Easton Ionia Co., was struck by lightning and instantly killed. Mrs. Michael Taylor's house at Lakeside was struck by lightning. Her right arm and left leg were paralyzed. At Petoskey a terrible flash of lightning ran through the central part of the city, striking in a dozen or more places. Instantly the streets were crowded with half stunned people. The first damage discove ed was at the railroad office. The clerks were at their desks half stunned. The operator, W. R. Cornelius, sitting at his instrument, was thrown backward from his chair on the floor. The flash entered on the wires, passed to the lightning arrester, thence across the office, within a few fest of the heads of the office hands, to the iron tank. Terrible damage was done in the frame dwelling house of George Suggitt. The mother and three children were in the sitting room; three other children with the mother were burned badly. Jennie, 6 years old, was burned all over the body, and is suffering terrible agony. The physicians say her case is hoppeless. Mrs. Bradlev had both shoes all questions in a rambling way.

On Tuesday an insane individual appeared at the door of the White House and said that the President was about to die and had sent for him. He was impatient to get in, and said that every moment might be a fatal delay. It was apparent that he was crazy, and the door respect took in the situation and marched him out of the gate. The man had no pass, but had managed to slip in some way.

Wednesday another lunatic appeared on the scene. He did not get any further than the gate. He had a remedy for the President's wound, and wanted to apply it right away. He knew, that it would cure him. It had been successfully used, he said, in many such cases. He was invited to promenade, and went promptly down the avenue.

In the inquiry—Which is the best Liniment for Man and Beasti—this is the answer, attested by two generations: the MEXICAN MUSTANG LINI-MENT. The reason is simple. It penetrates every sore, wound, or lameness, to the very bone, and drives out all inflammatory and morbid matter. It "goes to the root" of the trouble, and never falls to cure in double quick time,
